RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE MURAL DESIGN AND EXECUTION CONTEST entitled “It started in June”

§1

Contest Organiser
The Mayor of the City of Radom is the Contest Organiser.

The Subject of the Contest
The subject of the Contest is selecting the best design of a mural, i.e. a large-format wall painting and its execution. The events of June ’76 – the workers’ strike quelled by the communist authorities on 25 June 1976 – make the theme of the contest. The execution of the work falls on the 40th anniversary of the events (a historical note constitutes Annex 1 to these Regulations).

Location of the mural: a side wall (or two walls, rectangular in shape) of a 10-storey block of flats at 74 Żeromskiego Street in Radom. Next to the building there is a memorial stone commemorating the tragic events. The dimensions of the wall are given in a specification constituting Annex 2 to these Regulations.

Participation Terms and Conditions
1. The invitation to participate in the contest is addressed to all artists but generally the contest is open to anyone.
2. Any natural person of age, of any nationality, can participate in the Contest as well as groups/teams of authors whose members signed an agreement to execute a common undertaking.
3. A participant or a group/team of authors can submit only one design for the contest.
   In the case of a group/team which is not a legal person it will be necessary to appoint the team leader in the entry form who will represent the team in all contacts and legal acts with the Organiser (it refers also to the collection of the prize).
4. The Organiser and the members of the Contest Jury as well as the members of their closest family cannot take part in the contest.
5. Entering the contest is free of any fees.
6. Works should be submitted electronically to a website: konkurs@umradom.pl. In the subject of the message you should write the word “mural”.
7. The participant sends his/her work electronically (PDF or JPG format). The design should consist of two parts: mural visualisation and a separate file with the design. A scan of the Entry Form and Portfolio images of previously executed murals should be attached to the file with the design. The attached files can be max. 10 MB in size.
8. The personal data base developed in the course of the Competition will be used by the Contest Organiser exclusively for the purposes of carrying out the contest in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act of 29 August 1997 (i.e. Journal of Laws of 2014, item 1182, as amended). Each Contest participant has the right to access his/her data and verify them. The Mayor of Radom shall be the personal data administrator.
9. In the case of winning, the participant agrees to have his/her name and surname publicised.
10. Next the Contest Winner shall be obliged to execute the mural according to the winning design on the wall (walls) of the building at 74 Żeromskiego Street.

1. The contest shall be announced on 25 June 2015.
   a) Competition works will be accepted until 15 January 2016.
   b) The Contest shall be determined by 19 February 2016.
   c) Execution of the mural: May – June 2016, however, the painting must be ready by 20 June 2016.
2. The Organiser shall inform the author of the winning design.
3. The Contest results shall be announced on the Organiser’s website. This information will also be made public through local and national media.
4. The Organiser reserves the right to change the Contest time-schedule without changing the Rules and Regulations.

Evaluation of submitted works

1. The designs submitted for the Contest shall be evaluated in formal terms by the Contest Jury appointed by the Organiser. The Contest Jury shall evaluate the works in terms of artistic quality and the interpretation of the theme.
2. Decisions of the Contest Jury are final and irrevocable. The verdict cannot be appealed.

The Prize

1. The Prize for the Winner of the winning design shall be the money prize in the net amount of PLN 5 000.
2. The financial prize shall be paid in two instalments:
   a) I – following the announcement of the Contest result – PLN 2 000 net,
   b) II – after the execution of the mural at the date referred to in §4 section 1 letter C –
      PLN 3 000 net
3. The Organiser shall provide the winner of the Contest with the materials and equipment indispensable for the execution of the mural (i.e. paints, lift platforms, etc.)
4. The condition under which the contest winner will be able to collect the prize is signing an agreement on transferring the author’s property rights to the selected design.
5. The prize paid shall be taxed by the income tax in accordance with the law in force.
   This tax is paid by the Organiser.
6. The prize awarded to the group/team of authors is one. In the case the prize is awarded to the group/team, the group/team shall appoint its representative who will decide upon the way of dividing the prize.

§7

Copyright

1. The participant who decides to enter the contest confirms his copyright to the submitted design and declares that it does not infringe any right of any third party.
2. Winning the contest is tantamount with the transfer of all transferrable design copyright in all fields of exploitation, and in particular:
   a) on all digital data storing devices,
   b) reproduction through any technique, including printing and digital techniques
3. The designs cannot violate moral principles, the commonly binding law, the rights of the third parties and should be free from legal defects. The works in breach with the above named shall not be considered by the Jury.
4. In the case the submitted design uses the designs of the third parties, the work must be provided with an attached agreement in which the authorised person gives consent for using such work in the Participant’s design as well as consent for exercising derivative copyrights of this work including the right to use and dispose the work in the scope at least the same as the scope of use of the winning design.
5. The works which in their entirety or in part were submitted for other competitions, were awarded the prize or were published in any form cannot take part in this contest.

§8

Final Provisions

1. The Organiser reserves the right to revoke the Contest in the event when:
   a) no work is submitted for the contest,
   b) submitted works do not meet the requirements of the Contest,
   c) their artistic quality is unsatisfactory
d) a situation beyond the Organiser’s control makes the execution of the mural impossible

2. Entering the contest is tantamount with accepting its rules and regulations.
3. The cost of preparing the design and submitting the work is the Participant’s responsibility.
4. The Organiser reserves the right to correct the winning design in order to adjust it to the transfer onto the wall.
5. The Organiser reserves the right to use the competition works for marketing purposes.
6. The Organiser reserves the right not to transfer the winning design onto the wall without giving reasons.
7. All disputes between the Participant and the Organiser shall be resolved by a common court competent for the seat of the Organiser.
8. Interpretation of the Rules and Regulations belongs to the Organiser of this Contest.
9. The Contest Organiser reserves the right to introduce changes to the Contest Rules and Regulations, which do not affect the acquired rights of the Contest Participants. The change in the Regulations shall be valid the moment the amended Regulations are published on the website: www.radom.pl.
10. This Mural Design and Execution Contest is not a “game of chance” within the meaning of the Act of 29 July 1992 on games and mutual wagering (Journal of Laws No. 68, item 341, as amended).
